"Veronica's Veil" by Tony Jeans

"Walk of Witness"
Good Friday

The Walk started at Holy Apostles Church and finished at the Cemetery Gates (Horsefair Street). It continued by walking onto the Beeches Playing Fields, then with hot drinks & Hot Cross Buns in the Baptist Church Hall.

The walk was led by members of the participating Churches, and the cross and banner were carried by representatives of the Churches between the stopping points.
