

Charlton Kings Community Players

Members, supporters and invited guests enjoyed an evening of chat and entertainment at a 'Bring and Share Supper' to celebrate the 25th anniversary of the Players. The entertainment included songs from the productions and there were solo and group performances of favourite pieces.

