All the world's a stage

(from As You Like It 2/7)

William Shakespeare

All the world's a stage,
And all the men and women merely players:
They have their exits and their entrances;
And one man in his time plays many parts

Background

Charlton Kings Community Players (CKCP) drama group was set up in March 1992 to "encourage faith, fun and fellowship through ecumenical involvement in a variety of drama and musical activities for all ages". It is a voluntary unincorporated community organisation with open membership through participation in artistic activities. It is not a 'club'. It is linked to and supported by the Churches of Charlton Kings, but participation is unrestricted by individual personal beliefs.

Members are drawn from all the churches in the village, but anyone who lives, works, attends school in Charlton Kings, or has strong connections with the village, is welcome to join in any of the activities.

All productions have open auditions and encourage participation by people of all ages. The productions offer opportunity for involvement in drama, music, dance, lighting, back stage operations, production design, costume, promotion and other aspects of the performing arts.

As well as major productions, The Players have performed sketches on the annual Good Friday 'Walk of Witness' in Charlton Kings and at other similar events. They have also provided Christmas and Summer Entertainments at residential homes in the village, and carols at residential homes at Christmas. They have provided entertainment on request such as for Harvest Suppers and special events.

The 'Walk of Witness' is supported by all the churches in Charlton Kings and was an idea put forward by the Revd. John Evans, who was the minister at the Charlton Kings Baptist church for 10 years.

There is usually a Christmas show 'Let Us Be Merry'. It is interesting to see from the Performance Record how what started as entertainments brought to separate locations has developed into a full scale Christmas Show. Now people gather in one place, and transport is organised for this event fostering community spirit.

The Players perform, rehearse and meet in various locations in Charlton Kings, which is also of benefit to the local community. Appendix I provides an insight into the production process.

The Players' Accounts are published to the members annually at the Annual General Meeting. The Accounts are independently examined. Since 1992, The Players have contributed nearly thirty thousand pounds to charitable organisations and local projects, and have operated a bursary scheme in memory of a former member, Alison Luna (see Appendix J for obituary appreciation). Productions aim to be self-funding. and surpluses are used for future productions; workshops for developing ideas, talents and skills; equipment to support drama in local schools and charitable donations.

In 1995 the headmaster of Balcarras School asked if the Charlton Kings Community Players might write to OFSTED detailing the support given by The Players to the local community. This letter and its supporting attachments are included as Appendix G.

Prior to the creation of the Charlton Kings Community Players, the shows 'Rock Nativity', and 'From Pharaoh to Freedom' were performed as part of community drama activity. A performance of 'Greater than Gold' involved members through the Charlton Kings Baptist Church. A performance of 'House upon the Rock' involved members as part of the 800th Anniversary of St Mary's Church, Charlton Kings. There was also a special pantomime ('The Late Panto Show' and an 'Old Time Music Hall') put on to raise funds for local schools and other projects.

This publication aims to gather together a record of the works performed, and those who took part in the wide range of roles which are needed to mount a production. Its purpose is to provide a definitive record for reference purposes; to ensure that the detailed history of The Players is not lost, and to complement the comprehensive pictorial record in The Players' archive. It may provide a springboard for other publications and any studies being undertaken. It can be seen from these records how people may undertake a variety of roles within a production, and how several members of the same family may over a period of time involve themselves in community drama. It is supported by two further publications being a compilation of all programmes located and a selection of photographs.

During the production planning for 'Hay Fever', it was discovered that a theatrical company was formed early in 1967 in Charlton Kings called The Kings Players. Their record (as located to date) has been included as Appendix K to ensure that information about local community activity is not lost. Copies of programmes located are included in 'Charlton Kings Community Players - Supplement to Performance Record – Programmes'. A selection of photographs located is included in 'Charlton Kings Community Players – Supplement to Performance Record – Photographs of Productions'.

'Charlton Kings Community Players - Performance Record'

This publication aims to gather together a record of the works performed, and those who took part in the wide range of roles which are needed to mount a production. Its purpose is to provide a definitive record for reference purposes; to ensure that the detailed history of The Players is not lost, and to complement the comprehensive pictorial record in The Players' archive

'Charlton Kings Community Players - Supplement to Performance Record – Programmes'

This Supplement is a file of digital images of the programmes of the main performances, Christmas Shows ('Let Us Be Merry'), special events, and for the Christmas, Summer and Harvest Supper Entertainments. It includes play reading records and released videos. It can be read using zoom facilities on your PC.

'Charlton Kings Community Players – Supplement to Performance Record – Photographs of Productions'

This Supplement is a file of digital images of selected photographs of the main performances, Christmas Shows ('Let Us Be Merry'), special events, and for the Christmas, Summer and Harvest Supper Entertainments. It can be read using zoom facilities on your PC. Many of the selections are in the form of a photo-montage. Photographs have not been located for all events and the CKCP welcome any photographs 'discovered' for productions without photographic record.

There are special photographic publications for the following:

'The Rivals'* performed in 2013.

'Let Us Remember'* undertaken in 2014 being a Great War commemorative pageant.

'Murdered to Death'* performed in 2016.

'Some Sunny Day'* undertaken in 2017 being a WW2/40s commemorative piece.

'Bunkered'* performed in 2018.

'Treasure Island – almost a pantomime'* performed in 2019.

There is a collection of photo storybooks for all major productions, published through the Players' web site, which has been put together retrospectively from photographs and memorabilia in the archives.

'A Lovely Day Tomorrow' & 'Harlequinade' 1999; 'Sunset House' 2003

In recent years photo story collections have been produced for the Christmas Shows and the street theatre for the Good Friday 'Walk of Witness'.

'Let Us Be Merry 2014'
'Let Us Be Merry 2015'
'Let Us Be Merry 2016'
'Let Us Be Merry 2017'
'Let Us Be Merry 2018'
'CKCP welcomes the Christmas Season 2019'

'Walk of Witness 2002'
'Walk of Witness 2015'
'Walk of Witness 2016'
'Walk of Witness 2017'
'Walk of Witness 2018'

There is a special publication for 'Some Sunny Day' of the local stories which were researched and formed the basis of the script.

There is a supporting PowerPoint file of the front page scans of the main productions and Christmas programmes. This will run on a timed loop.

See the section 'Archive and Performance Related Information' for responsibilities for maintaining Players archive material and lists.

Logos and drawings

There are several logos in use throughout Charlton Kings Community Players publications and on merchandise (polo shirts, sweatshirts and production gifts). See Appendix F for historical information about the polo and sweatshirts. Souvenir glass vases with the logo of the Millennium Christ were purchased, and metal brooches were made, to commemorate 'Whose Birthday Did You Say?'

	The CKCP oval was designed by Ken Venus. See Appendix J for obituary appreciation.
	The star used for Christmas productions is available in standard image libraries.
	The Millennium Christ image was designed by George Cross and Geoffrey Maynard.
	The Children in Need logo [Designer not identified]
	The drawings on several of the production programmes and posters were by Ian Alexander. See front of programmes for 'Toad of Toad Hall' , 'Cabaret!' , 'The Vigil' and 'An Inspector Calls' .
	The drawings on several of the production programmes and posters were by Geoffrey Maynard. See front of programmes for 'The Sound of Music' , 'A Lovely Day Tomorrow' , 'Whose Birthday did you say?' 'The Browning Version' and 'Joseph' .
	The programme cover for 'House upon the Rock' was designed by Philip Roseblade, then aged 10, who was the winner of the Holiday Club Programme competition.

Pre formation contributions to charity and community projects

Prior to formal formation of the group, money raised through the three productions 'Rock Nativity', 'From Pharaoh to Freedom' and 'House Upon The Rock' was donated as given below:

Charity/Organisation	Amount	Date period	Comments
St Mary's Hall Appeal	[amount not identified]	1984	Rock Nativity
Charlton Kings Youth Centre Appeal	[amount not identified]	1987	From Pharaoh to Freedom
Cheltenham's Young Homeless Project	[amount not identified]	1990	House Upon The Rock
Grand total	[amount not identified]

Pre formation early roots include the 'Mums and Dads' of pupils at Charlton Kings Infant School and the County Junior School who put on a performance of 'The Late Panto Show' in May 1986 and raised some £500 for the St. Paul's Laser Appeal and for the two schools. An 'Old Time Music Hall' review in March 1989 by the same group raised £497.75 for the Charlton Kings Youth Group. 'Greater than Gold' performed by the Charlton Kings Baptist Church in 1986 raised monies for the on-going work of the Bible Societies.

CKCP Charitable and Community Donations 1992 - 2021
Total £29,841

Notes and commentary

Approx 30% of the donations given to local schools and churches to support their work.

Approx 20% of the donations given to support work for children & younger people including students.

Nearly 50% of the donations given to support work for care in the community and aid to others.

A small amount (6%) for particular fund raising activities (unique or not detailed in records).

Churches hire out for payment against invoice for use of their facilities.

Schools (non Independent) hire out for payment against invoice for use of their facilities. This means that the hiring of Church or School premises is not directly visible as a community contribution by the Players (ie. it is not a donation but an expense in the Accounts). Should CKCP choose to donate to a particular Church or School fund raising activity then it would appear in the donation record.

Independent schools with charitable status are subject to specific regulation and Government Guidelines in respect of their facilities. They are expected to support the community, including state schools, by making their facilities available for use. They may also have Local Authority Planning restrictions on any hiring out of their premises. Donations to such schools are to support their charitable aims (ie. to enhance educational provision in the community).

‘Care & Social Action’ includes welfare provision by particular groups, hospital support groups, medical research and support groups, disaster appeals and various national fund raising.

Note: The Constitution defines the membership of the Committee. In addition to the three defined officers, there can be 5 elected members and up to 5 co-opted members. The records above do not generally show who is elected and who is co-opted within the committee makeup. Where numbers recorded are above 13 that is as a result of co-option of different people for periods within the year.

2017/2018 was the 25th year of operation of the Charlton Kings Community Players as a formal Community Voluntary Group

Notes and commentary to graph

The Constitution defines the make-up of the membership of the Committee.
There are 3 officers being Chairman, Minuting Secretary and Treasurer.
There is a maximum of 5 elected members to the committee.
There is a maximum of 5 co-opted members to the committee at one time.
Total is 13 at any time.

A member of the committee takes on the role of Vice-chair to share officer duties with the Chair and becomes the Chair Elect for the following year given no objection registered at AGM (an alternative election is agreed by the AGM).

The numbers above show those serving by election and co-option within the committee makeup. Where numbers recorded are above 13 that is as a result of co-option of different people for periods within a year.

The Minutes of the Committee meetings and AGMs show a wide range of people who have come together to contribute their experience and skills to the achievements of the Players in its formal phase of operation.

2. The aim of the group shall be to encourage faith, fun and fellowship through the ecumenical involvement in a variety of drama and musical activities for all ages.
 - (a) Membership of the group shall be from the Churches, residents or those with strong connections with Charlton Kings, regardless of age, race, gender, disability and sexuality.
 - (b) The Players accept their responsibility towards young people and vulnerable adults and the Policy Statement and Code of Conduct attached to this constitution defines this responsibility.
4. The Officers of the Players shall be Chairman, Minuting Secretary and Treasurer supported by a committee of five who shall be elected at The Annual General Meeting which normally will be held as soon as possible after the 31st March.

One member of the committee shall take the role of Vice-chair to share the responsibilities of the chair and that this individual shall be the Chair elect for the following year, subject only to there being no objection raised at the following AGM. Each Church should, if possible, have a representative on the Committee and in the event of a split vote the Chairman will have a casting (additional) vote.

5. The Committee shall have the power to co-opt up to five non-voting members who have expertise to offer to the business of the committee for a specific purpose, and to appoint any subcommittees and shall prescribe the functions of any such sub-committee.
6. A quorum of the Committee shall be at least five members of the elected Committee, one of whom must be an officer.
7. The Treasurer shall keep an account of all income and expenditure and shall submit accounts, duly audited, at the AGM. All accounts shall be made in the name of the group and withdrawals shall be made in the name of the group on the signature of two of the following:
Chairman
Treasurer
And such other person as the committee shall deem appropriate.
8. One auditor (Independent examiner), not being a member of the Committee, shall be appointed annually at the AGM to audit the books and the accounts of the Players.
9. No alteration to the rules may be made except at the AGM or Special General Meeting called for this purpose. Any proposed alteration to the rules to be moved at the AGM or any Special General Meeting (SGM), shall be notified in writing, signed by the proposer and seconder, to the Secretary at least seven clear days before the Meeting at which it is to be proposed. On receipt, of such notification, the Secretary shall take all reasonable steps to bring the proposed motion to the notice of all members of the Players.

10. A Special General Meeting shall be convened at the request in writing to the Secretary often members of the Players provided such a request sets out the nature of the business proposed to be considered at the SGM and the motions submitted to it. The SGM shall be held within thirty days of the request and the agenda and motions submitted shall be circulated to all members.
11. All members shall be encouraged to put forward to the Committee ideas for activities and productions and events at which 'entertainment' may be provided. The Committee will then decide which of these shall be undertaken by the Players.
12. Any person involved with productions and other activities over the preceding 2 years shall be deemed a Member of the Players. (A year for this purpose shall be a financial year ending 31st December). Involvement shall include acting and practical support backstage, front of house or in other ways. Alternatively, any person who qualifies under Clause 3, may apply in writing to the Committee, requesting that they be included as a Member. The Committee will compile a list of Members based on the criteria stated. Only persons on this list may speak or vote at an AGM or Special General Meeting (SGM) and receive any specific benefits of membership. If a person not on the list considers they should be included as a Member for an AGM or SGM, they may appeal in person to the Meeting to be included and a decision by a ballot of the Members present shall be final.
13. Each January, those Members who have not been involved in the past 2 years will be informed by letter that they will cease to be Members of the Players until they have been involved in a new production or activity or have requested in writing that they remain a Member. If a production or activity has taken place between the end of the financial year and the date of the AGM (or SGM), everyone involved in that production or activity will be deemed Members.
14. The suggested rate of voluntary contribution shall be considered and set at each AGM. Further, it will be expected that each member of a production should buy his/her own score or script, except with special permission of the Committee.
15. Any matter not provided for in the Constitution shall be dealt with by the Committee whose decision shall be final.
16. At the end of a production where a profit is made the Committee will make a donation to a suitable charity providing there are sufficient moneys left in the accounts to support the next activity/production.
17. In the event that the Players should for whatever reason cease to function as an organisation, a Special General Meeting shall be called in order to decide to what charitable purpose(s) any residual funds should be disbursed. The value of assets held (props, staging, costume, technical equipment and any other items) should either be realised and added to funds or donated to appropriate charitable or community recipients.

Annex

A Safe Environment – A Policy Statement

We will seek to create a safe and secure environment for all our members and especially for children, young people or anyone with special needs or vulnerabilities

We will seek to identify, eliminate or manage any risks to health, safety or well-being in any of our activities.

We will carry appropriate insurance.

We will establish appropriate first aid procedures, carry out risk assessments and develop method statements where required.

In working with children, young people or anyone with special needs or vulnerabilities, we will -

- (a) Ensure effective communication with parents or carers, including safe use of electronic communication;
- (b) Provide adequate levels of supervision, both in terms of numbers and gender balance;
- (c) Never allow one person to work wholly alone with an individual or group;
- (d) Ensure that anyone with direct and significant contact is either - an established person in this area of work (e.g. a current, recognised teacher, youth worker etc.)

accredited to us by verified references and current requirements for disclosure and barring.
- (e) Ensure parental and other necessary permissions are obtained.

We will record, investigate and (if necessary refer to other appropriate Agencies) any complaint or incident.

We will consider policy, procedure and practice regularly at Committee in the light of experience, general good practice and legal obligation.

Any costs involved with maintaining the above will be met from the 'Players' resources.

This policy will be reviewed at least annually at the AGM

Charlton Kings Community Players Code of Behaviour

Members should not spend excessive amounts of time alone with children, away from others.

If privacy is needed, the door should remain open and others should be aware of the meeting.

Members are advised not to make unnecessary physical contact with children.

However there may be occasions when physical contact is unavoidable, such as providing comfort at times of distress, or physical support in dance or similar. In all such cases contact should only take place with the consent of the child.

It is not good practice to take children alone in a car, however short the journey. Where this is unavoidable, it should be with the full knowledge and consent of the parents (or guardians) and of others in charge.

Members should not make electronic contact with children, particularly through unregulated use of social media.

Members should not take pictures of children taking part in Players productions and activities without the required permissions.

Members should not start an investigation or question anyone after an allegation or concern has been raised. This is the job of the authorities. You should just record the facts and report these to a designated person.

Members should never (even in fun) –

- (a) Initiate or engage in sexually provocative conversations or activity.
- (b) Allow the use of inappropriate language to go unchallenged.
- (c) Do things of personal nature for children that they can do for themselves.
- (d) Allow any allegations made by a child go without being reported and addressed, or either trivialise or exaggerate child abuse issues.
- (e) Make promises to keep any disclosure confidential from relevant authorities.

Members should not show favouritism to any one child, nor should they issue or threaten any form of physical punishment.

You must :

Members must respect children's rights to privacy and encourage children and adults to feel comfortable enough to report attitudes or behaviour they do not like.

Members should be aware of the procedures for reporting concerns or incidents, and should familiarise themselves with the contact details of the designated persons.

If a member finds himself or herself the subject of inappropriate affection or attention from a child, they should make others aware of this.

Members should never enter changing rooms of the opposite sex alone nor without permission with the exception of emergency situations where evacuation of the premises may be necessary.

NOTES

These guidelines may be altered in the light of experience or changes in legislation but should be reviewed along with the child protection policy at least annually at the AGM.

Change from a Membership Subscription Organisation

Charlton Kings Community Players

SPECIAL GENERAL MEETING

It is proposed that changes should be made to the Constitution as follows:

Clause 4

Insert the word “normally” before “...within two months of the end of the Financial Year”.

Clause 12 - replace with the following;

Any person involved with productions and other activities over the preceding 2 years shall be deemed a Member of the Players. (A year for this purpose shall be a financial year ending 31st December). Involvement shall include acting and practical support backstage, front of house or in other ways. Alternatively, any person who qualifies under Clause 3, may apply in writing to the Committee, requesting that they be included as a Member.

There shall be no fixed subscriptions but Members will be encouraged to contribute at the annual rate of £5 and £1 for students. The Committee will compile a list of Members based on the criteria stated. Only persons on this list may speak or vote at an AGM or Special General Meeting (SGM) and receive any specific benefits of membership. If a person not on the list considers they should be included as a Member for an AGM or SGM, they may appeal in person to the Meeting to be included and a decision by a ballot of the Members present shall be final.

Exceptionally, for the year 2003, membership will commence with involvement in ‘Whose Birthday’ in 2000.

Each January, those Members who have not been involved in the past 2 years will be informed by letter that they will cease to be Members of the Players until they have been involved in a new production or activity or have requested in writing that they remain a Member. If a production or activity has taken place between the end of the financial year and the date of the AGM (or SGM), everyone involved in that production or activity will be deemed Members.

The suggested rate of voluntary contribution shall be considered and set at each AGM.

Further, it will be expected that each member of a production should buy his/her own score or script, except with special permission of the Committee.

The SGM will be held on Monday 28th April at 8pm
in the Baptist Church Hall, Church St., Charlton Kings:

Notes and Commentary 1984-2018

The Players is an unincorporated group. It is an organisation set up through an agreement between a group of people who come together for a reason other than to make a profit i.e. a voluntary group. The Constitution requires membership lists are maintained against the defined criteria (Clause 12. and Clause 3.). This is based on a previous TWO year rule, though people can request to be included on the list. The latter supports people who wish to or need to take 'time out'. A Special General Meeting addressed the issue of an 'establishment of a workable, fair and consistent model for maintaining a membership list that accurately reflects those who are actively involved with or who express an active interest in the Players' (outcome published to members in a CKCP Newsletter May 2003).

The CKCP Performance Trilogy publications attempt to record the involvement of people from the early roots to 2018 (some 34 years). This is done from information gleaned from published programmes, events, other Players publications and AGM/SGM and committee papers. The graph above shows data from the Trilogy and the overall profile of engagement of people with the Players. These are not exact numbers as some people's involvement may not have been recorded in the referenced documents.

In the early days of formation (prior to adoption of a formal status and Constitution) some 100 people were involved and over 60% of these continued to work with the Players when it became a formal community group. A small number from those times continue to be involved today.

Over 600 people have been involved throughout the history of the Players to date, and in the formal phase of management of the group this number remains high at over 500 and will include new people.

Over 80 people have been involved in activities in the two years (1st Jan 2016 to 31st March 2018).

The number of people involved in any particular two year period is likely to be affected by the mix of productions undertaken with opportunities for involvement, the number of active people elected and co-opted to the committee, and their pro-activity in a range of duties and tasks to promote the Players.

From the regularity of the names featured in the various productions a goodly number of people throughout the full period may claim to remain on the committee maintained Membership List.

CHARLTON KINGS COMMUNITY THEATRE

After the very successful 'Rock Nativity' two years ago, another Community Theatre production is planned for 1987.

'FROM PHAROAH TO FREEDOM'
by Roger Jones

It is a musical drama with a large and varied cast, giving an opportunity for everyone to get involved. Wendy Griffiths will again be directing the production which will run from 27th to 30th May 1987 at Balcarras School.

To launch this exciting project for Charlton Kings the first rehearsal will take place on Tuesday 13th January 1987 at 7.30 p.m. at Charlton Kings Junior School.

Anyone who would like to take part in any way is asked to come along then. If you cannot manage that evening, telephone Janet Bevan (527225) or Allison Luna (522862) to find out more.

There are all sorts of ways in which you can be involved, whether or not you have any previous drama experience. So whatever your age, whatever your talent

COME AND JOIN IN!

You won't regret it - and you won't forget it!

First Thoughts on Charlton Kings Drama/Music Group

FIRST THOUGHTS ON CHARLTON KINGS DRAMA/MUSIC GROUP

WHAT FOR?

To encourage Faith, fellowship and fun through ecumenical involvement in a variety of drama and musical activities for all ages in Charlton Kings.

WHY NOW?

- o Success of three local Community Drama productions
- o Long-term interest in a group being formed
- o Enthusiasm and talent amongst young people
- o Producers now prepared to 'have a go'
- o Opportunity to encourage local ecumenism and community involvement as part of 'Decade of Evangelism'

WHAT WOULD IT DO?

- o A series of cabaret acts as entertainment for social events in the village.
- o Mobile entertainment suitable for old people's homes etc. in the village.
- o One full-length production every two years in church or school, either a 'Roger Jones' type of musical, community drama or a specially-written work.
- o Informal small group singing evenings to encourage expertise for major musical productions, special services, entertainments etc. (e.g. Taizé, Negro Spirituals, Barber Shop Quartets)
- o Group visits to professional productions of interest at theatres within one hour's drive, e.g. Bristol, Oxford, Malvern, Stratford and Swindon.
- o Group visits to Cheltenham or Gloucester amateur or church productions of interest.

COMMUNITY SINGERS

Peter Grainger reminded everyone that the singing group which is doing "Noah and his Floating Zoo" is enjoying rehearsals, but needs more basses. (He is afraid of being down-graded from tenor if a real bass doesn't turn up). Next rehearsal - Tuesday 25 May, 7.45, Keith Mead's house, 20 Glynrosa Road. The Group hopes to perform in the autumn entertainment - see more information below.

TAIZE GROUP

The ecumenical Taize group has now sung in St. Mary's, Sacred Hearts and the Baptist Church with a good congregation joining in each time. They would welcome more singers and players joining for rehearsals - especially young people. The Taize Prayer meetings last about one hour. The next one is in St Mary's Parish Centre, Upper Room, Monday 24 May at 8pm. The rehearsal beforehand starts at 7pm.

AUTUMN CABARET

The Players are planning a Cabaret evening in aid of Children in Need on Friday 26 November at Charlton Kings Junior School.

An Interest Meeting will be held on Monday 21 June at 7.30 pm at the Parish Centre for all those who would like to be involved.

We need SINGERS, ACTORS, MUSICIANS, COMICS, GYMNASTS, DANCERS, WRITERS and BACK STAGE HELPERS.

All will be welcome with, or without, ideas and material. If you would like to take part but cannot make the meeting please contact:

Jill Richell - Tel. 521837 or
Paul Mathews - Tel. 226750

FUTURE PRODUCTIONS

There are several titles under consideration at the moment. The idea is that we should alternate musicals with smaller and more serious plays to give everyone a chance to contribute. The aim is to have a production around Easter 1994. There is still time for new ideas - suggestions to the Committee please.

THEATRE TRIPS

There was a favourable response at the AGM to the idea of group theatre trips, ideally within one hours travel of Cheltenham - will keep you informed.

LOGO

An appeal to artistic members, of which I am sure there are many. Would someone like to design a logo suitable for the newsletter? PLEASEWE NEED YOUR HELP!!!!

STOP PRESS

OUR FIRST ENGAGEMENT!!!!!!

1993 is European Year of the Elderly and we have a request to perform a short drama at the Service of Celebration for the elderly to be held at Pitville Pump Room on Thursday 7 October - members at the ready please.

Finally, message from June:

I thank members who have shown their confidence in me to take on the position of Chairman. I will do my best to come somewhere near the high standard set by my predecessor.

I hope you enjoy the first issue. Please feel free to contact members of the committee with any new ideas for the next issue.

With thanks for your continued support.

OFSTED submission on behalf of Balcarras School (1995)

CHARLTON KINGS COMMUNITY PLAYERS.

Madingley
35 The Avenue
Charlton Kings
Cheltenham

1st December 1995

Mr P. Waite
Registered Inspector
O.F.S.T.E.D.

Dear Mr Waite,

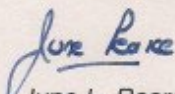

We are a group of 'Players' made up of members of the churches and people of Charlton Kings. The enclosed sheets give more detailed information about our objectives and history.

Our most recent production the musical play 'Oh What A lovely War' was performed in October at Balcarras School, and was judged to have been a great success. A total 804 tickets were sold for the three performances and this enabled us to make a contribution of £700 to Balcarras School for their library fund, in addition to the fees agreed for the hire of the school.

Most important however was the community spirit that developed in the fifteen months that it took to prepare for this show, and the good relationship that built up between the school, the staff and the pupils. Mr Dave Thomas, Deputy Head, did everything he could to help and encourage us, the staff assisted us with the lighting and the use of the music room, and the caretaker and his colleagues were very cooperative. One of the teachers took a leading role in the play, and there were a number of present and past pupils in the cast. Without their help our production would not have been possible.

Clearly, this was an example of great team work which could only have come from a well led, highly motivated school. We would like to offer our thanks to everyone for their support and commitment.

Yours sincerely

June L. Pearce
Chairman.

CHARLTON KINGS COMMUNITY PLAYERS

'The Players' were set up on a permanent basis in March 1992 by those who had enjoyed what they called 'the wonderful spiritual feel' of the two earlier 'Community Drama' productions, 'Rock Nativity' and 'From Pharaoh to Freedom'. The aim of the group is:

'to encourage faith, fun and fellowship through ecumenical involvement in a variety of drama and musical activities for all ages.'

Our first major production was 'Toad of Toad Hall' performed at St. Edwards School in December 1992, this was followed in November 1993 by a cabaret evening for 'Children in Need' which, with the help of local groups raised £1000. In March 1994 we performed 'The Vigil' by Ladislav Fodor, in Sacred Hearts Hall. With the proceeds from 'Toad of Toad Hall' and 'The Vigil' generous donations were made to local charities.

Our singing group, with those not involved in major productions, entertain at appropriate village occasions, such as Harvest Suppers and homes for the elderly.

Please see list attached for details of our activities.

Members of the group are drawn from all the churches but anyone who lives or works in Charlton Kings is most welcome to join us in any of our activities. If you would like to know more, or you have an entertainment opportunity in mind, please contact our Chairman, June Pearce (516953), or Secretary, Ann Cross (239569),

Charlton Kings Community Players

COTSWOLD HOSPITAL RADIO GET-TOGETHER

26th November 2003 at 66 Little Herbert's Road

Present: Mike Eatough, Sylvia Fry, Peter Grainger, Audrey Hayward, Veronika Jordan, Jane Kane and John Palmer. Copies to Lynne Glover, Tony Jeans and Joe Kinane

1. BACKGROUND

As a result of the presentations at the AGM and Lynne's invitation, John and Mike have each been once to record at the studio in College Lawns and Audrey twice. The Station Manager and contact is Iain Holmes, and the overall impression was that it was 'simpler than we could have imagined, very laid back and enjoyable.' The Radio caters for an 'audience' aged 35-70, and is networked to other centres such as Delancey. Each age group within this range requires appropriate entertainment, but inevitably a greater number of listeners will be in the older age bracket and more will be listening at night.

2. MATERIAL

They want recordings from us that can 'infill' between musical items taken from their large library of CDs. These items should not be more than 10 minutes in length, and, because of the size of the studio, cannot involve more than, say, 4 readers. After recording, our contributions will be stored for a later appropriate broadcasting time, eg we may need to record Christmas items in the summer. If they are not used presumably they are not suitable, so we do not need to be too worried about the quality or suitability of our material - we'll never please everyone with everything we read! We agreed that we should assume that CHR had special copyright arrangements, and we did not need to concern ourselves with this now; John will check with Iain Holmes who works near him.

3. WHY THE PLAYERS?

The Players were probably right for CHR as a self-selecting 'performing' group who would help to build up and maintain a 'tank' of non-musical material to fill up 24 hour programmes. We can particularly find and prepare pieces that require more than one reader, and a group of four individual readers is more easily organised into a recording session via a prior get-together - and the experience will be more enjoyable!

We agreed we were 'representing' the Players, and felt we didn't need to be too reticent about our Christian background, so long as our material was not too serious, 'preachy' or proselytising. The sick and those who couldn't sleep at night would be glad of material that was positive, caring, and delivered with love.

4. BENEFITS TO PLAYERS

To make a contribution to the well-being of those in hospital in our community;

To share and develop ideas and materials for recording and possible later performance;

To help identify readings and sketches suitable for performance at events in the community and at residential homes;

To encourage newcomers from the community to 'have a go' at performing in a low stress environment (mistakes can be digitally corrected!) - and without having to learn lines!

To help find new or surprising talent from a wide range of reading opportunities;

To provide relaxed opportunities for ‘members’ to socialise between major productions, with wine!

5. NEXT GET-TOGETHER

Some ideas for materials were shared, eg dramatised stories from ‘Winnie The Pooh’, and we agreed to bring items to share at the next meeting on Wednesday 21st January at 7.30pm at Veronika’s (66 Little Herbert’s Road; Tel: 511260), when we may need to read in two smaller groups. We would encourage others to come along.

Charlton Kings Community Players - Guidance Notes for 'The Production Process'

Note: Rôles may vary according to relative skills, experience and availability.

Choice of Play or Items for Reviews

1. Preliminary discussion encouraged with Players members (e.g. at AGM, play readings, workshops), local schools, drama groups, theatres etc. about type of play/musical, ensuring no duplication of selection. Committee prepares brief (ie. criteria for selection of next production) and considers possible Directors (with Musical Directors and Choreographer(s) for musicals), Producer, Production Manager (and Assistant Director if required), and agrees individual/team.
2. Reading committee (if needed) reviews, including Director and Producer (and Musical Director for musicals), latest French's Guide and Weinberger's and other catalogues, reads appropriate selections and recommends shortlist to Players Committee. Proposer(s) order short-listed plays for Committee to read and checks availability for performance and costs. Some plays sets may be borrowed from identified libraries. Committee selects play/musical.
3. For Reviews (including single performance productions) where Players members are invited to suggest items (readings, sketches etc), it must be made clear that items proposed should include information in relation to copyright and performing rights (the source publications should provide this).
4. Committee agrees venue, dates for performance, length of run (including possible matinée), checking availability with venue administrator; considers licensing details and any legal issues.

Production Preparations

1. Committee with Director and Producer (+ Musical Director and Choreographer if available) agree date options and venue for auditions. Production Manager will book venue. Publicity Manager organises the advertisement of auditions locally, Production Manager orders/organises provision or loan of scripts and makes them available to potential cast members. Directors and Production Manager prepare audition procedure (+ singing and dancing for musical), including audition information sheets (under and over 18) and agree appropriate selection panel. They hold auditions and agree cast selections; Director notifies cast members and those unsuccessful, obtaining cast members agreement to play parts, payment for scripts and agreement for their contact by email for the production process. (General data protection regulation (GDPR) effective on 25 May 2018 to replace the current Data Protection Act.)
2. Production Manager considers availability and cost of rehearsal rooms, any limiting entry procedures etc. Director considers preferred rehearsal structure, including start and finish times, arranges and holds initial read-through with cast, checking rehearsal availability. Cuts to script are considered (if permissible under the licensing agreement) or any other permitted adaptations. With information from cast, relevant production team members and information sheets, Director develops Rehearsal Schedules and distributes to cast and production team, reissued periodically as amendments become necessary.

3. With Assistant Director, Director may want to meet main characters informally to discuss characterisation, relationships etc. He/She discusses production ideas with Assistant Director and blocks moves scene by scene well ahead of each rehearsal.

Off-Stage Preparation

1. Director and Producer agree required expenditure (agreed budget format) with Production Manager and obtain approval of budget from Treasurer on behalf of the Committee. If any proceeds are to go to charity, the beneficiaries should be agreed by the Committee early in the process.
2. Director and Producer discuss ideas for set with Designer, Production Manager and Assistant Director, agreeing concept, dimensions, entrance/exit locations etc.
3. Producer selects Stage Manager, Set and Costume Designers, and Leads for Lighting, Sound and any Projection (stills or video), make-up, props and Prompter.
4. Producer and Director agree Lighting and Costume needs with Assistant Director, Production Manager and Designers. They make provision to try out costumes either at rehearsals or in individual sessions. They consider the need for microphones and/or sound effects and projection (stills/video). A costume evening for cast to try on costumes from Costume Store and Loans may be considered (illustrated catalogues exist for store and loans). A costume briefing may be advisable for encouraging cast and others to search for particular items. All backstage planning co-ordinating and budgeting carried out for Director by the Producer and Production Manager.
5. Director, Producer and Production Manager discuss and agree publicity plans and ticket quantities with Publicity Manager. Consideration needs to be given to the design and production of posters, flyers and publicity displays. A skilled graphic designer should be involved. Budget considerations must be made.
6. Production Manager ensures appropriate insurance, theatre licences, Health & Safety officer inspection are arranged and copyright and royalty requirements are met. Producer and Production Manager select Front-of-House Manager and agree venue arrangements, including Director's seating requirements and costume arrangements for 'Front-of-House' team.
7. Producer and Director resolve final queries. Director prepares detailed lighting plan with Designer on stage; resolves sound and any projection/video queries.
8. Producer and Director agree schedule for Technical and Dress rehearsals at performance venue. Director runs Technical Rehearsal with Stage Manager on appropriate days in performance week, allowing sufficient time for feedback. If possible, there will be a free day between Dress Rehearsal and First Night.
9. Director and Producer deal with any last minute queries. Producer and Production Manager organise set up including seating and take down after the show. Production Manager arranges transport for stage props, lighting etc to bring kit to the venue and to return kit after the show. They provide problem solving capacity including encouragement before and after First Night and specific feedback to individuals as required.
10. If there are to be any special items for Front of House e.g. displays, exhibition of artefacts, Producer and Production Manager will make necessary arrangements.

11. The Show Programme should be discussed at an early stage with the Graphic Designer and the concept agreed. The Producer will act as Editor and the Director will produce a description of the show for inclusion. Costs must be contained in the budget.
12. For smaller scale productions, some rôles can be combined so that the show will have a Director and Producer or Director and Production Manager.

Charlton Kings Community Players - Guidance Notes for ‘Performing Rights and Copyright’

Venues/Halls A Local Authority licence is not required for plays and music where the audience is less than 500, the performance takes place between 8am and 11pm and is based in places of public worship, village halls, church halls and other similar buildings and schools

Main productions: Plays, Plays with music, Musicals

1. Plays are performed against licence and the requirements met in respect of script copies.
2. Licensing agreements are required for music unless it has been composed specifically for the Players by a composer who agrees to its use. This applies to any background music or interpolated music for any existing play or for Commemorative Pageants or stories written by/for The Players. Permissions are obtained for any readings (prose or poetry) where this may be necessary.
3. All commercial musicals performed require performance rights/hiring arrangements (for music and dialogue), and scripts returned as required by the terms of the licensing agreement.

Christmas Shows, Showcase events, Street theatre

1. Sketches, monologues, and special poetry presentation/prose extracts will require performing rights licensing.
2. These may be necessary even if the activity is non commercial i.e. there is no entrance charge.
3. The publications will detail (usually at the front or back or both) the requirements, whom to contact and arrangements for making copies of the material.
4. Care needs to be taken over using material from what are compilations which contain the copyrighted material of others. The copyright remains with the originator and not the compiler (see declarations in the book).
5. Whilst the publisher will reserve all rights, the person holding a copy may make ONE copy of a piece (or part of a piece) under ‘fair dealing’ rules (permitted in UK copyright law) for non-commercial research or study, criticism or review.
6. Some licensors for plays/sketches/monologues are Samuel French, Josef Weinberger and Cressrelles.
7. The Society of Authors (est. 1884) and David Higham Assoc. manage permissions related to literary estates.
8. Databases of material exist, prices for licensing are published and can be purchased on-line, including scripts.
9. Some of the Christian sketch/monologue writers require direct contact with their registered organisation.

10. It is possible to find performance pieces on the Internet giving performing and script copying permissions.
11. Licences may be for a single or multiple performances over a period of time, with option for renewal.
12. Scripts for multi-character pieces are expected to be by purchase of more books or payment of fees for copying.

Music (Two issues)

1. A PPL (Phonographic Performance Ltd) licence is needed when recorded music is played. Licensing should be renewed each year (currently 1/2/2017 to 31/1/2018 Amateur Theatrical Performance Tariff PPLPP03 Licence). Explanations can be found on the PPL web site.
2. A PRS (Performing Rights Society) licence is required for use of the work of composers and writers for both live and recorded music. The situation is complex and depends on the nature of the show. Reference should be made to the PRS web site. Sometimes there is a Community Building Licence (CBL) which covers.
3. If no CBL applies, a particular licence is required e.g. an Interpolated Music Licence (IML).
4. The charge for an IML depends on the proportion of music in the show and the box office take.
5. PRS will give free licences to charity and voluntary groups under some circumstances.

Costs?

1. These can vary widely and need evaluation against budget. Typical costs of monologues and sketches are approx £12 for a single performance. Others can be as high as £40 - £70.
2. Costs for Christian based sketches/monologues can be licensing for 3/5 years for £25+ without copying provision for scripts. Internet licensing can be as little as £10 for permanent access rights/performance copies.
3. Some authors might give particular allowances for charitable support i.e. ALL proceeds from entrance sales go to charity but contact would need to be made for such permissions.

Copyright (Authors, artists, composers, lyricists, photographers etc)

1. Different laws operate internationally. UK copyright operates up to 70 years from the death of the individual, or the last person for shared work. A work will fall into the public domain once copyright expires. However, revisions to or new editions of a work may create a new copyright so care is required.
2. While work published on the Internet may be publicly accessible, it may not be legally in the public domain.
3. The act of copying or adapting someone else's work is a breach of copyright. Any adaptation will be legally regarded as a derived work; so if you simply adapt the work of others, it will still be their work, and they have every right to object, and to receive money you make from it. Any breach is a civil matter and the copyright holder can take action for damages. With the use of images both projected or in hard copy, there is increased danger of breaches.

4. 'Share and re-use' and Commons (open access) licensing arrangements operate for particular work. The requirements must be met for acknowledgement of copyright as part of those permissions.
5. Even if something is out of copyright, it is discourteous to originators not to acknowledge their contribution to cultural development and creativity in society. In some cases copyright may have been passed/sold to another.
6. The Producer should oversee all aspects of copyright compliance.

Charlton Kings Community Players - Guidance Notes for ‘Publicity by Capability’

Note: The Players have an official logo. A master file is available on request for use on official business. Special logos may be approved for individual productions.

Publicity Contacts

1. Consider any special form of publicity which may be needed or appropriate for this particular production, and discuss with the Director and Producer, encouraging others’ ideas. Includes shop window displays, Showcase evenings, appearing at local events in costume, partnership arrangements with local societies (e.g. CK Film Society, CK Library) etc. Ensure flyers are available for handing out (appropriate standard and using the CKCP official logo and contact information).
2. Ensure information is available early from the Players web site and is communicated via the approved Players mailing list. Mailing must conform with the requirements of General data protection regulation (GDPR) effective on 25 May 2018 to replace the current Data Protection Act.
3. Confirm poster sites (checklist should be maintained) and arrange distribution of posters at appropriate time.
4. Identify a ‘Link’ person from each of CK Churches and request ‘standing’ notice boards in Sacred Hearts and Baptist Halls.
5. Agree Display Sites and board sizes with actual and potential providers.
6. Send appropriate publicity material to the Gloucestershire Echo (including “This is Gloucestershire” web site), free publications of any sort, Radio Gloucestershire and Severn Sound; follow-up with a phone-call to locate a contact within one week. Use all available social media and on-line newspapers locally.
7. Visit early rehearsals and stress to the Cast the importance of selling as many tickets as possible (checklist provided for sellers).
8. Arrange a photo-shoot and explore involvement of local media.
9. Agree and send appropriate Complimentary tickets, checking with Director and Producer. Check if critic from the Gloucestershire Echo is to be invited and issue ticket if required.
10. Publicity should be run by the Publicity Manager in close consultation with the Director and Producer.

Administration of Tickets

1. Director and Producer should agree audience size, prices and time of Performance with the Committee when the budget is agreed. Lay-out and copying/printing of Tickets by colour/night should be arranged by the Production Manager and the Graphic Designer
2. Decide number and sizes of posters and agree Schedule of poster, leaflet (and ticket) availability with Graphic Designer.

3. Agree distribution and timing of Sales Outlets and Ticket Packets with holders, assemble and distribute. Usually cast and crew members will take a pack. Set up arrangements for notification for tickets from the Players web site.
4. Respond to Booking Form, telephone requests and web site requests for tickets as quickly as possible. The responsibility for each channel should be taken by a named individual. It is essential to respond to delivery requests etc. as helpfully as possible. Tickets must NEVER be issued without payment. Always arrange for collection and payment Front of House on the relevant night with tickets clearly marked.
5. Check results at sales outlets and redistribute tickets as required, liaise with Front-of-House Manager to ensure 'at the door' tickets are appropriately available and labelled.
6. Ensure that ticket sales are correctly recorded and correct money returned; return monies and agree with Treasurer final Sales Figures.

Media Creation

1. This requires close collaboration between the Director, Producer and Graphic Designer. Agree format, image, colour etc. of Flyers, Posters and Leaflets and identify writers of leaflet scripts.
2. Producer and Graphic Designer to arrange printing and distribution of posters and leaflets to Publicity Manager according to agreed schedule.
3. Publicity Manager to organise activities e.g. use of the display boards, regular newsletters about the production for download from the Players web site and distribution to approved mailing list. (Use hard copy versions for handing out at various events.)
4. Agree deadlines. Write appropriate publicity pieces and circulate to church links, 'Where I Live' (Gloucestershire Echo) and other media as required.
5. Agree use of material from photo-shoot, and action.

May 2004 updated September 2017

Charlton Kings Community Players - Guidance Notes for ‘Costume acquisition and Costume Store’

Background A costume store is maintained and storage space is funded from reserves. The items in the store are assets of the CKCP and the principles of disposal are stated within the Constitution. Location and storage payments are managed through the Committee. All items are catalogued which includes photographs and other essential information.

Costuming a production or other activity

1. The suitability of costume available from the store is evaluated by the person who has agreed to manage/design costumes. The need for seeking loans, purchase of items or external hiring is identified. Purchase and hiring costs would need to be built into the production budget.
2. If items of costume or accessories are to be purchased, responsibilities for obtaining and for paying for the items must be defined.
3. If items of costume, or accessories, are to be hired or obtained on loan, responsibilities for collecting and returning must be defined. This action may incur cleaning costs which would need to be included in the production budget.

Costume store procedures

1. All items are stored by the best means possible to ensure that they are maintained in good order. Hard plastic transparent lidded boxes are used of a particular size (for ease of handling) and the general contents are labelled for speed of access. Other props may also prove suitable storage devices, particularly for hats. There are cupboards (with locks) for storage of particular items of clothing and props which should be secured.
2. Additional items must be photographed and catalogued, and agreed disposals removed from the catalogue list.
3. Items are usually stored as collections of particular items, e.g. skirts, jackets, uniform.
4. All items used for productions, and loaned to any other organisation/group, must be logged out and back in again. Items should be returned to their original storage containers.
5. No item will be placed back into store soiled or damaged without appropriate action being taken.

Management of stock

1. The number and type of items maintained in the store should be considered carefully. Some types of costume will be used frequently, some occasionally or some very rarely.
2. There must be capacity maintained to absorb appropriate items acquired for new productions. The aim is to keep the best and to dispose of those which are less useful. Good practice should ensure that the time (and money) of any individual/group is not wasted in the acquisition of items..
3. Particular items, or sets of items, might best be stored separate from the main store if it is felt that they should be kept, even though rarely used or not used for a considerable period of time. This relieves the pressure on space in the main store.
4. At all times anything donated by supporters, or sourced and purchased by cast and production team, should be treated respectfully. If they are surplus to requirements, they can be passed to other organisations/groups e.g. ‘Open The Book’ teams, other Amateur Dramatics groups, appropriate charity outlets. Good practice should ensure that, once items are extracted for disposal, there is an interval in which a wider group can be consulted, before sending to any charity shop or fabric recycling. This ensures disposing of items to the most appropriate recipients.

<quote>

The Production Process: A costume evening for cast to try on costumes from Costume Store and Loans may be considered (illustrated catalogues exist for store and loans). A costume briefing may be advisable for encouraging cast and others to search for particular items.

Val Flippance

Many members of The Players will have heard of the death of Val Flippance with great sorrow. Involved in the production side of the Players, Val gave production support backstage in such notable productions as 'Oliver', 'A Midsummer Night's Dream' and 'Murder in the Cathedral'.

I will never forget working with Val on the props for 'Oliver' – her kindness, interest in other people (she never failed to ask after my daughter, Helen, whenever I saw her) and her resilience in the face of many years of ill health are a rôle model many of us would find hard to live up to. Our thoughts are with her husband, Chris, and the rest of her family in this difficult time for them.

Jane Jones

Val contributed a significant amount of information which enabled the Players to put together the publications of the history. For those who were involved in the Players in the 1990s, you may remember she was a co-producer with Cynthia Birks in 'A Kaleidoscope of Romance' (1997) and 'A Lovely Day Tomorrow' (1999) working with the young people's groups ('The Company' and 'Blitz').

Sandra Jeans

Gwilym Davies 1946-2022

In June 2022 the Players lost Gwilym Davies, one of their best and most longstanding musicians and actors. Gwilym died at the age of 76 after a brave struggle against a heart infection, which he was unable to shake off because of a lowered immune system after his kidney transplant.

Gwilym brought to the Players a lifetime of expertise and experience in the folk music world. My most vivid memory is of performing alongside him on so many occasions in Green Willow, Puzzlejug and Waytes and Measures, where he often took the lead: on melodeon, playing the intro and setting the tempo for country dancing; soloing and harmonizing in his folk-inspired unique baritone; or suddenly enriching a medieval piece by his English bagpipe. In company with Gloucestershire Morris, and Happenstance Border Morris, I'll miss his expertise on the whole range of Morris tunes and their many variants – and even more his post-Morris singing and playing in dozens of Gloucestershire pubs over 50 years.

Though he could play from music, Gwilym rarely did so - almost all of his playing and singing was from his prodigious memory of folk music and song. This superb musical memory was a great asset in the folk collection which was his life's work. Gwilym started song collecting in his early twenties, recording source singers. His first publication was 'A Hampshire Collection' (1974) which he co-authored with his wife Carol. Since then, Gwilym's song collecting activities expanded to include Devon, Gloucestershire, Shropshire and the Eastern USA, where he spent some time on secondment in the early 2000s.

Over time he created a significant archive of field recordings of source singers, including previously undocumented songs and many other songs formerly only recorded in manuscript. Throughout the latter part of the C20th Gwilym got to know the traveller community, from whom he recorded songs and tunes. He delved deeper than just the songs, collecting also from step dancers and musicians.

'Let Us Remember' 2014 (British soldier 'The Rose of No man's land', French soldier 'La Chanson de Craonne'). 'Players Please!' from Kaleidoscope of Romance 2002

In the early C21st Gwilym donated his original field recordings of over 1000 songs to the British Sound Library, and he considered how to make the material more widely available. Following a pilot project and consequent Heritage Lottery Funding, a partnership was set up with Gloucestershire Archives and in 2016 the Single Gloucester project was born. With Carol as project manager, this delivered the Glostrad archive (www.glostrad.com) – a large multi-media website containing over 1400 items collected in the county of Gloucestershire.

Gwilym first joined the Players in 1995, taking several parts in 'Oh What A Lovely War' and singing solos 'Adieu La Vie' and 'Goodby-ee', plus the 'Roses of Picardy' as a duet with Margaret Walker. In 'A Kaleidoscope of Romance' (1997) he sang three solos, and several duets with Carol. In 'Oliver' (2006), he sang 'Who will Buy'.

In 'A Midsummer Night's Dream' (2008) he choreographed, played and sang for a stick dance by the mechanicals (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=bOQnC8UiqHE>). This is on the CKCP YouTube channel.

A video is available of Gwilym, and members of the cast of 'A Midsummer Night's Dream', performing 'Umpsey the Gumpsey'.

'Let Us Be Merry' 2000

'Let Us Be Merry' 2017

'The Rose of No Man's Land' and 'La Chanson de Craonne' were performed as solos in 'Let Us Remember' (2014) and Gwilym joined the CK Community Singers for 'My Fair Lady' (2010) and 'Some Sunny Day' (2017).

Carol and Gwilym, as lead members of 'Puzzlejug', have participated since 2000 in all 21 annual performances of 'Let Us Be Merry', the Players' Christmas Show. I am sure Puzzlejug will be there again this year, but perhaps there will be an empty chair, and a silent melodeon.

A great family man, Gwilym delighted with Carol in their children Mary-Ann and Robin, and four grand-children. They, and we, will miss a friendly, cheerful, warm and uniquely talented character, who has deeply touched our lives.

A tribute to Keith Norcott

It is with great sadness we record the passing of Keith. He and his wife Elvina were regular attenders at various Players' productions, particularly the Christmas shows. His book 'Chalk on my shoes – Memoirs of a Chilterns childhood' contributed to the stories researched and published for the Players' production, in 2017, of 'Some Sunny Day'.

His dialogue recalling his childhood experiences in air raid shelters was built into the actual script of the production. Keith and Elvina came to one of the performances and were introduced to the audience.

Photographs above show members of the Players using Keith's recorded script from his book and local children volunteered to portray the experience of those who spent nights in air raid shelters all over the country during WW2. Keith said he found watching this a quite moving experience to relive this traumatic time.

Janet Freeman

It was with great sadness that we heard of the death of Janet Freeman. Janet has been a supporter of The Players for many years, as a participant, a member of the Front of House Team for many productions, and an audience member with her husband Ted. Her last performance was as Veronica in Tony Jeans' short play 'Veronica's Veil' performed as part of the Walk of Witness at Easter 2018.

Janet was also a member of the Charlton Kings Junior School Open the Book Team, delivering Christian stories every Wednesday during the school assembly. She often had to play kings because of her height! She also participated in the WWII History workshops put on by The Players following 'Some Sunny Day', her excellent teaching skills being very useful in controlling groups of excited children playing 1940s games.

Janet was a kind, reliable and loyal person who will be greatly missed by all who knew her, and our thoughts are with her family.

Jane Jones

At a Service held in St. Andrew's Church, Montpellier, on 11th February 2022, a presentation of a bible reading as an OTB story was dedicated to both the memory of Janet Freeman (St. Mary's, Charlton Kings) and Kate Alger (St. Andrew's). They were both valued members of the CKJS OtB team.

Sandra Jeans

Janet will be sorely missed as a member of the OtB group visiting CK Junior School. The calm confidence of a former teacher was clearly seen in her fruitful interactions with the children and we all learned so much from her. Rest in peace Janet, we remember you with love and gratitude. Lynne Glover

Tony Poulter – a tribute

We are very sorry to hear of the death of our beloved friend Tony Poulter after a long illness. Tony had had a long career as a police officer and after his retirement he delighted in his family and his music. A member of the group 'Puzzlejug' since 1989, Tony took part in our recordings and in many of the 'Let us be Merry' Christmas concerts with his strong expressive singing. He was a warm caring friendly man, very loyal to his friends, and an adoring and adored father, grandfather and great-grandfather. He will be greatly missed.

LUBM 2000 – Puzzlejug – Gwilym, Geoff, Tony

Tony was part of the very first performance of 'Let Us Be Merry' in 2000. This was in Charlton Kings Junior School. This long-established Christmas Show has now been running for over twenty years, attracting regular supporters and bringing good cheer to people far and wide. It was so good that the Players were even able to provide digital versions during the on-going pandemic. Also it has responded to the need to recognise that an aging population needs a choice and that it is important to produce both live and digital shows. For those who do not know, the show name 'Let Us Be Merry' originates from the carol 'A Virgin Unspotted' which is regularly sung by Puzzlejug and is part of their CD recordings..

*'So let us be merry, put sorrow away
Our Saviour, Christ Jesus, was born on this day.'*

Sue Ramshaw

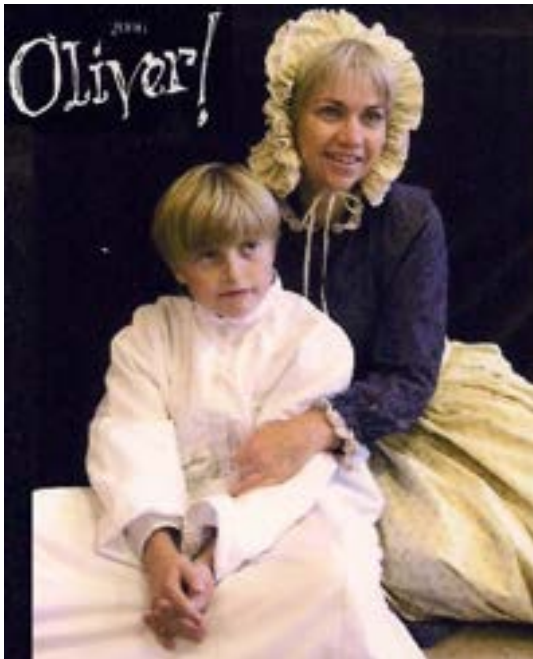

It is with great sadness that we record the death of Sue Ramshaw in August this year. Sue supported the Players through performance and Front of House. Her last appearance for the Players was with a small group who entertained the Baptist Church Lunch Club before Covid struck in 2020.

Sue also sang with Puzzlejug members in Hailes Church in their recording for LUBM 2020 digital production. Sue had a beautiful soprano singing voice.

She will be greatly missed and our thoughts go to Geoff and his family at this time.

Jill Muir – A Tribute

Faith, fun and fellowship, the founding aims of the Players, were given perfect expression in Jill's enthusiasm, engagement with others and firm underlying convictions. Her lovely smile carried us with her, sure that every challenge was within reach. The work she did with the Players is well remembered, often many years after the performances.

Thankfully, her archiving ability has meant that records have been kept of most of the early productions, stretching back to her own Charlton Kings debut in 'From Pharaoh to Freedom' in 1986, 6 years before The Players was formed. After Jo & Tom were born, Jill returned to the stage in 1994 as the gentle Susanna in 'The Vigil' surprising everyone with the occasional feisty moment. Then, the suspicious Baroness in 'The Sound of Music', who was so memorably relieved on hearing that Maria wanted to become a nun!

Contrasting characterisations were her specialty, from the bossy young Margaret in 'Edward', to the warm and comforting Mrs Bedwin in 'Oliver'. The family element of the Players was also well represented when she appeared with a sparring Jo & Tom in 'Whose Birthday'. But the character (a very small part) most firmly etched in many minds was the blousy usherette in 'Oh What a Lovely War' – 'Chocolates, vanilla ices, bonbons!'

We all have our own special memories. Her off-stage skills were also well used, from writing to directing and as part of the make-up team for the larger productions. When she spotted a need, she was always there. It was lovely that she found renewed happiness with Peter; their move to Tredington took her away from Charlton Kings, but she kept in touch and was still very much part of the Players. More recently, she spoke of her own beliefs when talking of her two college subjects, drama & divinity. She said, 'When I put them together, I rise up on wings like eagles.' Indeed she did, and for what feels like all too brief a period, she took us with her.

Rest in peace Jill, we shall miss you, but the memories you've left us feel like guiding stars.

Colin Roffe 1955 - 2019

Colin's death in June 2019 after a relatively short but extremely pernicious illness came as a great shock to his many friends, including those in the Players, in 'Puzzlejug' and in Gloucestershire Morris Men.

He had been a long standing member and contributor to the Charlton Kings Community Players through 'Puzzlejug' for nearly two decades. He first performed as part of the 'Let Us Be Merry' Christmas Show in 2004 and joined many subsequent performances, memorably coaching the audience into singing 'Turmut Hoer' in 2013! He was one of the many individual 'stars' in 'Some Sunny Day' with his memorable performance of 'Leaning on a Lampost' and then 'Wish me Luck as you Wave me Goodbye'. He had found the perfect pinstripe suit to wear with a flat cap and then walked off with a kit bag and put on a sailor's 'pork pie' ratings hat. When told he could be promoted to officer rank for the closing chorus, he said he actually was quite happy being a rating!

Colin was Squire of the Gloucestershire Morris Men for six seasons, over his many years of Morris dancing. A uniquely talented man in so many fields, he was a superb dancer, a great singer and a master of many musical instruments, from mandolin, guitar, banjo, ukulele, to mouth organ and melodeon.

A very highly regarded IT genius in his field of expertise, Colin is very sadly missed by all who have known him personally for so many years. He was well loved by all who knew him, as a kind, clever, generous man, a good and faithful friend, and a wonderful husband and father.

Kate Alger

Kate in 1940s costume selling programmes for 'Some Sunny Day'

It is with great sadness we write of the loss of Kate who died at the end of November 2018. Kate (with her husband Bob) were loyal supporters of Players' productions and in recent years was involved with a variety of activities for the Players.

Kate was often part of the Front of House teams including our 2017 WW2 commemoration production 'Some Sunny Day'; she was part of the team delivering the WW2 History Workshops and a leading member of the 'Open the Book' team at Charlton Kings Junior School. At Easter 2018, in our 'Walk of Witness' Street theatre, Kate was one of the 'Women of Jerusalem'. This was one of her last engagements with the Players before she became ill.

Kate was a strong and determined person who made a significant contribution to everything with which she was involved. Her son-in-law, Andrew Wise, provided a poetic eulogy for her funeral including these lines.

"An amazing lady who walked tall, was loved and respected by all."

Fiona Mead

We are very sad at the death of Fiona Mead. The Mead family has been part of the Charlton Kings Community Players from the very beginning.

Fiona shared her home, for choir rehearsals, and her family: Keith our Director of Music and Richard with his involvement with acting, music, lighting and sound.

She supported our shows and plays and was background support for Keith in his commitment to The Players through the many varied and ambitious productions we have undertaken over the years.

At the Memorial Service held on 9th November in the Charlton Kings Baptist Church, Richard spoke of the book she researched and wrote, 'Pigs, Peas, and Poetry – How a Gloucestershire Village School gained International Recognition'.

It was through that book that Fiona put together a number of smaller stories for a Players publication of local stories from WW2 and the 40s. This provided material for the script which was developed for the production 'Some Sunny Day', performed in 2017. The stories described boosting food production, blackout arrangements, air raid shelters, gas mask practice, helping on farms, fund raising for the war effort, the important taking-in of evacuees with the V1 and V2 threats and that most important activity in communities – 'the local pig and poultry clubs' so essential to survival and good health at a time of war.

Fiona was a volunteer at the Gloucestershire Archives and came across the story of Maisemore school, the achievements of the headmaster and the children when undertaking some particular research on the village school's logbooks.

Tim Masling

Tim on stage during 'Let Us Remember' (2014)
and with Debbie in 'The Rivals' (2013)

It is with great sadness that I write about Tim who was such a character and who will be greatly missed by the Players. Tim was involved with the Players in a variety of disguises – taking roles in productions including 'Let Us Be Merry' (notably as a gorilla), 'Let Us Remember', 'The Rivals', 'Ghost Train' and 'Murdered to Death'. His roles usually had a comic element, which he played to the full – who will forget his portrayal of the Frenchman Pierre Marceau in his last performance, with his exaggerated French accent, or his sinister Station Master with his hurricane lamp in Ghost Train.

Tim was also able to learn his lines with great ease – enabling him to develop his character and movement around the stage while the rest of us were still at the stage of juggling books and forgetting our lines.

Tim did not only perform with the Players, but he also supported Debbie, his wife, as she took on the arduous role of Chairman of the Players, and he was always there to help when staging was being moved, erected or dismantled. He also masterminded some really enjoyable quizzes which raised valuable funds for the Players to buy new lighting and sound equipment.

His sense of humour, comedy and ebullient personality were the outward appearances of a sensitive and thoughtful man. He will be greatly missed, and not only by Debbie and his children, but also by the wider community, including the Charlton Kings Community Players. I am so grateful to have known and worked with him.

Ann Cross

The 'Players' have sadly lost one of their foundation stones... Ann Cross, who recently passed away was a member of our first 'Players' Committee in 1992 and as Secretary was responsible for recording all the vital early decisions. June Pearce, our first properly constituted Chair, well remembers file upon files of Ann's distinctive – and very legible – handwriting!

I was reminded only last week that Ann was also Secretary of the Charlton Kings Churches Committee from its beginnings - I opened another 'down-sized' file and there was that handwriting again! The link between those two initiatives was historically significant.

But she also relaxed from her Committee responsibilities in a pioneering way; she played the first Angel – Gabriel no less! – in our very first production, 'Rock Nativity'. She had a splendid singing voice and I'm sure would have acted again if it had not been for the indelible memories of that silver foil costume!

However she was a memorable member of the Chorus, from Salzberg to Ascot, and a regular at 'Let Us Be Merry'. I am sure she was a great support for George in the galaxy of character parts in which he has excelled. Ann could always be relied upon to maintain the standards that she helped create nearly twenty-five years ago; she will be sorely missed.

Derek Pearce - 1930 – 2015

Derek was with Charlton Kings Community Players (CKCP) from the beginning. He set up the administration of our funds as our first treasurer: coping with scraps of paper; odd membership money coming in at all times of the year; liaison with schools, churches and caretakers; finding appropriate insurances; and handling and banking the ticket money.

He was revered by our accountant for his professional keeping of accounts.
A very popular service he gave us was the supplying of ice-cream for our performances.

He surprised many people when he agreed to take the part of 'the gardener' in 'The Vigil'. He did very well and enjoyed it but said 'never again'.

With June he was a supporter of outings, gatherings and of everything the Players did. We are grateful that he was one of us. We miss him.

Michelle Grainger

My main memory of Michelle will be her warm and inviting smile and her ready welcome to her and Peter's home and her enthusiastic support she gave to the Players. I shall never forget those early meetings at "Kings House" where we were able to set up the Players and the wonderful reception and hosting Michelle offered us. If anyone epitomised the 'faith, fun and fellowship' which the Players aimed to provide it was Michelle.

Thank you Michelle for that.

With her exquisite voice one wonders why she never 'strutted the stage'. Apparently this was because of two setbacks: one whilst playing Elizabeth Bennett in an extract from "Pride and Prejudice" in Herefordshire and it was the high notes in "Who Will Buy" that finished her dramatic career! These are just light-hearted memories - Peter thinks she was glad of an excuse not to appear again.

However, her total support of Peter whilst he was all consumed with the directing of so many wonderful productions can only be admired. She never complained or groaned about Peter being out night after night with rehearsals, backstage meetings and his living and breathing every aspect of the particular production he was on.

Michelle 'at home'

Behind the scenes Peter says that Michelle was never anything less than supportive with good suggestions and ideas which he could use. Her displays in the Library and elsewhere concerning the plays were excellent, and who could forget those wonderful big stones for the set of "Whose Birthday", which she managed to make to look like loaves! Michelle did quite a lot of 'touching up' for specific bits of set in her time as well as artistic displays.

As well as her time spent on the Players Michelle was very much involved in the ecumenical movement of the local churches where she was able to encourage them to come together. In this way Michelle had important contacts with all the Churches within Charlton Kings which was immensely useful in the setting up of the Players.

Michelle will be missed in many ways by many people but I think it is the Players who will miss her not being there when a new production is performed.

Yvonne Brawn

It was a huge shock to hear of Yvonne's sudden and unexpected death in early July. Always very active in the Community Players, at St Mary's Church and in the wider community she is sorely missed and will still be looked for in all the expected places for a long time.

Until retirement, she was a teacher at St Edward's Senior School and this background gave her an empathy with young people and a straightforward directness that made her a joy to work with. She never sought a leading role in productions but strengthened and brought character to the crowd scenes in the larger musical dramas, notably and most recently in 'My Fair Lady'. She was also memorably involved in 'The Sound of Music', 'Whose Birthday Did You Say?' and many of the Christmas productions, 'Let Us Be Merry'.

The Players will miss her willingness to take part, not only on stage or as a singer, but also in front of house – in fact, where ever she was needed. Yvonne enjoyed it all so much and will be missed so much but would be first to say 'The show must go on.' It is fitting that this tribute should rest in the programme for a production held in the hall of the school where she spent so much of her time and into which she put so much of her life.

Margaret 'Maggie' Scrivens

We were very sad to hear that our dear friend Maggie passed away at home in Bourton-on-the-Water on 20th March, after a prolonged illness. Maggie was involved with all the Players major productions from the early Nineties as costume maker, designer and dresser. Her creativity in costume design shone through in all our major productions. She had the wonderful gift of creating the right style and colour for an individual and, if in doubt, would research information for accuracy – she was meticulous. Maggie had the ability to produce something from nothing.

An example of her skill was our production of 'Oh What a Lovely War' in 1995. We had great difficulty in hiring uniforms, caps and hats for the soldiers but Maggie came to the rescue. She arrived for a rehearsal with a case full of fabrics and by the end of the evening had hand made three French soldiers caps with appropriate trimmings. All this work completed in a quiet and unflappable manner.

I visited Maggie at home when she was confined to bed and she accepted her illness with great dignity. She was the epitome of love and kindness and will be greatly missed.

Sue Dyson - An Appreciation

We were very sad to read in the 'Echo' last week of the circumstances of Sue Dyson's sudden death. Sue was well-known as a writer and singer, but Charlton Kings Community Players would like to recognise her talents in a less well-known role, as an amateur actress.

No-one who saw - and particularly, heard - Sue as the Abbess in our production of 'The Sound of Music' in 1998 will ever forget the range and beauty of her 'Climb Every Mountain'. She was the consummate abbess, caring but firm, smiling but concerned.

Although she never talked with us about her life as a fiction writer, she wrote an insightful wartime sketch, 'A Lovely Day Tomorrow' for our Double Bill in 1999, and was then prepared to play the role of Mary, the mother of Jesus, in the play I wrote for the new millennium, 'Whose Birthday Did You Say?' Her warmth and sincerity shone through that gentle performance, and included her singing of two lovely original songs by Malcolm Dunbar.

Despite all the pressures of her life Sue found the time to run a Singing Workshop for us, and, because of her debilitating illness, we lost touch with her. Then memorably she returned unexpectedly to sing with Helen Wright in the entertainment part of our AGM last year. With Musical Direction in mind we invited her to join our 'Directors' Workshops' last Autumn; she replied at once with real enthusiasm and characteristic modesty, "I would love to have a go...if you think I'm up to it... it would be lovely to see you all again."

But her relentless illness took her once more into hospital and she was unable to be with us. We heard no more until the shocking news of her sudden death, and then the tragedy recounted in the 'Echo'. Those who knew her in local drama will be grateful for the experience of working with such a lovely person, but mourn with deep sadness the manner of her departing. We remain frustrated with the thought of 'What might have been...'

Alison as Judith in 'Hay Fever' (2001)

NEWSLETTER FEBRUARY 2004

ALISON LUNA

A deafening 'QUI-ET is how many past members of the Players will remember Alison Luna, and those memories go back to 1984 when Alison began her amateur career as Stage Manager. We knew she had been a professional Stage Manager once upon a time and could imagine her at the Everyman. But it was many years later that we realised what illustrious circles she had moved in, when she received a note of good wishes from Albert Finney for her role as Judith Bliss in our 2001 production of 'Hay Fever' - they had apparently worked together years ago on a tour of Scotland.

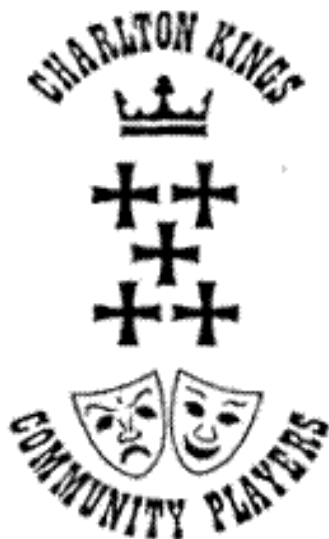

Alison was involved in all our productions from the beginning, and was a founder of our first 'committee' in 1992 - she later admitted it was not really her scene! As Stage Manager she laid down and maintained the high standards of organisation and efficiency that became a feature of the Players backstage. But it was much more than that; she was an enthusiastic member of the group who created 'House upon the Rock' for St Mary's Octocentennial, a long-term committee member and latterly our Treasurer. She was always keen to help young Stage Managers to develop their skills backstage, and some will remember with a smile the diminutive (at that time!) Phil Bevan dashing around the stage with his trusty microphone.

But in 1994 we persuaded her to appear on the stage as the Prosecuting Counsel in 'The Vigil', a challenging part even for an experienced actor, but Martyn still talks about their duel on stage and who really won! My favourite memory is her playing the icy 'Tempter' in 'Whose Birthday?' (it was the very first scene written) and despite not feeling well enough to appear on stage, she had the courage to have her lines specially recorded at the University for 'Players Please'. She also insisted on sharing the prompting for that anniversary production, another backstage role she had miraculously managed to carry out as S.M.! But she always said that one of her happiest moments was to play Judith in 'Hay Fever', and it was wonderful that she was able to have such a triumph before her illness began to take hold.

So we all owe Alison so much, not only for all she did, but for the qualities she brought to the development of the Players and so many friendships that were built on its foundations. She insured we never took easy options and yet was realistic about the challenges. She cared deeply about the group and despite being confined to bed, always wanted to be involved and to know how things were going. As director, you knew once she'd agreed to be Stage Manager your job was half done; as an actress she was always professional, talented and totally reliable. Having her there in the centre of the village, even when confined to bed, was strangely re-assuring. Alison, thank you.

Ken Venus

Now that the Community Players sweatshirts have been established so successfully in the group, it seems right to remember Ken, who played such an important part in the design of the logo. His sudden death last January came as a tremendous shock to his friends and has caused an enormous sense of loss to all who knew him.

He was a lovely man, gentle, kind, modest and endlessly willing to put himself to great trouble for all who asked his help. His skills as an artist will long be remembered in Charlton Kings. God bless you Ken, we will miss you.

The Kings Players (Local Drama Group 1960s/1970s)

Background

The Kings Players was a non affiliated local drama group, and was formed early in 1967. It had two objects in mind. 'One was to satisfy the theatrical aspirations of interested Charlton Kings residents and the other to provide a modicum of entertainment for the remainder.'

Its productions were mostly staged in Charlton Kings Secondary Modern School Hall (now Balcarras School), with some use of other local venues. Rehearsals were mostly in the Charlton Kings Infants School Hall. The group raised money for charity. 'Shopping Week' (November 1972) reports The Kings Players as having 'produced countless zestful productions' and that they 'are well-known for their enthusiastic work for charity and the ingenuity of their costumes which they make themselves'.

The scripts for the pantomimes are reported as being written by The Kings Players themselves. There was a major funding raising event in 1972 in St. Mary's Parish Hall, Charlton Kings, in order to mount the 'Jack and the Beanstalk' pantomime.

The pantomimes included young dancers. The Gloucestershire Echo (in its Nostalgia pages 1995 and 1996 respectively) includes a photograph of the cast of 'Jack and the Beanstalk' and one of the cast of 'Cinderella'. Both productions show involvement of adults and children and the quality of the costumes. 'Cinderella' was performed both as the first pantomime in 1968 and again in 1976, and was well reviewed in the local press. 'Jack and the Beanstalk' was performed in a cut down version in St Mary's Hall in 1974 because of the power delivery problems due to national strikes. The full version was performed in 1975 at the Secondary Modern School.

The group staged 'Hay Fever' (Noel Coward) in October 1968. 'The Gloucestershire Echo' (19 October 1968) reports 'Hay Fever Ambitious Venture', and considers that the 'Kings Players showed that their attempt at serious theatre was a valuable one'.

From synopses on production programmes, the Kings Players also produced several plays in this period. Press coverage at the time indicates that the group was finding it difficult to continue due to stalwart members leaving and finding information about productions has not been possible after 1978. The group thus appears to have performed locally for some ten years on a minimal production budget raising money for charities and encouraging local people of all ages to take part. They operated a junior section for under 16s. Their productions were reviewed by the local Press and photographs published. As can be seen from the performers and production team records, people might act or dance in one production, and then be part of the production team in another. There were several different directors or producers. Several members of the same family might be involved.

It has been possible to assemble this Performance Record for the Kings Players thanks to the personal archives and memories of local members of this group and press cuttings. Members providing information are Jenny Barton, Val Codling (née Pearson), Douglas & Carol George.

Twenty four productions have been identified so far – usually three productions a year.
